Unless the context otherwise requires words or expressions contained in these articles have the same meaning as in the Companies Acts but excluding any statutory modification not in force when this constitution becomes binding on the Charity.

Apart from the exception mentioned in the previous paragraph a reference to an Act of Parliament includes any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force.

Liability of Members

- (1) The liability of the members is limited
- (2) Every member of the charity promises, if the charity is dissolved while he or she or it is a member or within twelve months after he or she or it ceases to be a member, to contribute such sum (not exceeding €1) as may be demanded of him or her or it towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the charity incurred before he or she or it ceases to be a member, and of the costs charges and expenses of winding up, and the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves

Objects

4 The Charity's objects ("the Objects") are specifically restricted to the following:-

To relieve sickness and to preserve and protect health by advancing, for the public benefit, the science and art and research into vascular disease including (without limitation) vascular surgery

In particular:

- (1) To promote or carry out research into vascular disease and disseminate the results of such research
- (2) To hold meetings, seminars, lectures and conferences relating to vascular disease and vascular surgery
- (3) To publish or distribute information in relation to vascular disease and vascular surgery
- (4) To promote the association of surgeons, anaesthetists, radiologists, trainees and non-specialists in Europe and elsewhere who are substantially involved in the care and treatment of vascular disease
- (5) To sponsor a journal for the publication of scientific papers presented to the Charity and other suitable articles
- (6) To provide advice that may be appropriate to European authorities on matters concerning vascular disease

Powers

5 The charity has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the charity has power:-

- (1) to raise funds. In doing so, the charity must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
- (2) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- (3) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the charity. In exercising this power, the charity must comply as appropriate with sections 36 and 37 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006;
- (4) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed. The Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 38 and 39 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006, if it wishes to mortgage land;
- (5) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;
- (6) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects;
- (7) to acquire, merge with or to enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charity formed for any of the Objects;
- (8) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves;
- (9) to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Charity. The Charity may employ or remunerate a Director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by clause 6 and provided it complies with the conditions in that clause;
- (10) to:-
 - (a) deposit or invest funds;
 - (b) employ a professional fund-manager; and
 - (c) arrange for the investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee;

in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;
- (11) to provide indemnity insurance for the Directors in accordance with and subject to the conditions in Section 73F of the Charities Act 1993;
- (12) to make grants or loans of money and to give guarantees;
- (13) to set aside funds for special purposes or as a reserve against future expenditure;

- (14) to insure the property of the Charity against any foreseeable risks and take out other insurance policies to protect the Society when required;
- (15) to enter into contracts to provide services to or on behalf of other bodies;
- (16) to pay out of the funds of the charity the costs of forming and registering the charity both as a company and as a charity;
- (17) to do anything else within the law which promotes or helps to promote the Objects

Application of Income and Property

Universal clauses

- (1) The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.
- (2)
 - (a) A Director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity.
 - (b) A Director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with and subject to the conditions in Section 73F of the Charities Act 1993
 - (c) A Director may receive an indemnity from the Charity in the circumstances specified in Article 51.
- (3) None of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a Director receiving:
 - (a) a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity.

Director's benefits

Provision of goods and services, employment, other remuneration/financial benefits - directors/connected persons

- (4)(A) No director or connected person may:
 - (a) buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
 - (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity;
 - (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity;
 - (d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity;

unless:

- (i) the payment is permitted by article 6(4)(B)(a); or
- (ii) the directors obtain the prior written approval of the Commission and fully comply with any procedures it prescribes.

Scope and powers permitting directors'/connected persons' benefits

(4)(B) (a)

- (i) A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity.
- (ii) A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73A to 73C of the Charities Act 1993
- (iii) Subject to article 6(4)(C) a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person.
- (iv) A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be 2% (or more) per annum below the base rate of a clearing bank to be selected by the directors.
- (v) A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper and provided that the director concerned shall withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (vi) The directors may arrange for the purchase, out of the funds of the charity, of insurance designed to indemnify the directors in accordance with the terms of, and subject to the conditions in, section 73F of the Charities Act 1993.
- (vii) A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

(4)(C) The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by article 6(4)(B)(a)(iii) if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between:
 - (i) the charity or its directors (as the case may be); and

- (ii) the director or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”) under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.
 - (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
 - (c) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
 - (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
 - (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.
 - (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.
 - (g) A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 6(4)(A)
- (4)
- (a) In sub -clauses (2)-(4) of this article 6 “charity” shall include any company in which the charity:
 - holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - has the right to appoint one or more directors to the Board of the company;
 - (b) In sub-clause (4) of this article 6, sub-clause (2) of article 40 and sub-clause (2) of article 41 “connected person” means:
 - (i) a child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother or sister of the director;
 - (ii) the spouse or civil partner of the director or of any person falling within paragraph (i) above;
 - (iii) a person carrying on business in partnership with the director or with any person falling within paragraph (i) or (ii) above;
 - (iv) an institution which is controlled:-
 - (l) by the director any connected person falling within paragraph (i), (ii), or (iii) above; or

- (II) by two or more persons falling within sub-paragraph (I), when taken together
 - (v) a body corporate in which:-
 - (I) the director or any connected person falling within paragraphs (i) to (iii) has a substantial interest; or
 - (II) two or more persons falling within sub-paragraph (I) who, when taken together, have a substantial interest.
- (c) Paragraphs 2 to 4 of Schedule 5 to the Charities Act 1993 apply for the purposes of interpreting the terms used in this sub-clause.
- (5) The provisions of sub-clauses (2)-(4) of this article 6 as they apply to Directors shall apply equally to Councillors.

Members

- (1) Membership is open to other individuals or organisations who:
 - (a) apply to the Charity in the form required by the Directors;
 - (b) in the case of individuals are European surgeons, anaesthetists or radiologists in independent consultant practice who are substantially involved in the care and treatment of patients suffering from vascular disease; and
 - (c) are approved by the Directors.
- (2) The director of the Charity elected in accordance with the Bye Laws by the trainee members of the Charity shall be deemed to be a member under Article 7(1)(b) and to be a member of the Charity.
- (3) The directors may refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the charity to refuse the application.
- (4) Membership is not transferable.
- (5) The directors must keep a register of names and addresses of the members.

Classes of Membership

- (1) The directors may pursuant to the Bye Laws establish classes of membership with different rights and obligations and shall record the rights and obligations in the register of members.
- (2) The directors may not directly or indirectly alter the rights or obligations attached to a class of membership.
- (3) The rights attached to a class of membership may only be varied if:-

- (a) three-quarters of the members of that class consent in writing to the variation; or
 - (b) a special resolution is passed at a separate general meeting of the members of that class agreeing to the variation.
- (4) The provisions in the articles about general meetings shall apply to any meeting relating to the variation of the rights of any class of members.

Termination of Membership

9 Membership is terminated if:

- (1) The member dies or, if it is an organisation, ceases to exist;
- (2) The member resigns by written notice to the Charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than two members;
- (3) Any sum due from the member to the Charity is not paid in full within two months of falling due;
- (4) The member is removed from membership by a resolution of the Directors that it is in the best interests of the Charity that his or her membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if:
 - (a) The member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the Directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed;
 - (b) The member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the Charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

General Meetings

- (1) The Charity held its first annual general meeting within eighteen months after the date of its incorporation.
- (2) An annual general meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.

11 The Directors may call a general meeting at any time.

Notice of General Meetings

- (1) The minimum period of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Charity is twenty-one clear days for an annual general meeting or any other general meeting
- (2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights.

- (3) The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. No member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote on his or her behalf.
 - (4) The notice must be given to all the members and to the Directors and auditors.
- 13 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Charity. Proof of transmission of the notice to any member, Director or auditor shall be sufficient evidence of notice having been served.

Proceedings at General Meetings

- 14
- (1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.
 - (2) A quorum is more than one half from time to time of the members present in person and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting
 - (3) The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum.
- 15
- (1) If:
 - (a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or
 - (b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present;the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the Directors shall determine.
 - (2) The Directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.
 - (3) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.
- 16
- (1) General meetings shall be chaired by the President or if he or she is not present by the President Elect (as defined in the Bye Laws) or such other person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the Directors.
 - (2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a Director nominated by the Directors shall chair the meeting.
 - (3) If there is only one Director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.

- (4) If no Director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present in person and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

- (1) The members present in person at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.
- (2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.
- (3) No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
- (4) If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date time and place of the meeting.

- (1) Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:
 - (a) by the person chairing the meeting; or
 - (b) by at least two members present in person and having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (c) by a member or members present in person representing not less than one half of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- (2)
 - (a) The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded.
 - (b) The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the Charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded.
- (3)
 - (a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.
 - (b) If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- (4)
 - (a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.
 - (b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- (5)

- (a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.
- (c) The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded.
- (d) If the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- (e) If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting.

Written Resolutions

- (1) A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:-
 - (a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member;
 - (b) a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of members has signified its agreement to the resolution; and
 - (c) it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.
- (2) A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement.
- (3) In the case of a member that is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement.

Votes of Members

20 Subject to article 8, every member whether an individual or an Organisation shall have one vote.

21 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.

- (1) Any Organisation that is a member of the Charity may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Charity.
- (2) The Organisation must give written notice to the Charity of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the Organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the Charity. The representative may continue to represent the Organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the Charity.

- (3) Any notice given to the Charity will be conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the Organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The Charity shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the Organisation.

Directors

- (1) A Director must be a natural person and a European Member (as defined in the Bye Laws) save in the case of the EVST Representative who shall be a European Trainee Member”.
- (2) No one may be appointed a Director if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of article 30.

24 The number of Directors shall be not less than 7 and no more than 15 (unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution).

25 A Director may not appoint an alternative Director or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the Directors.

Appointment of Directors

26

- (1) The President, the President Elect, the Deputy President Elect, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the EVST Representative, the Academy Chair and the Editors of the Journals of the Charity shall be the directors of the Charity.

- (2) The directors must be elected in accordance with the following provisions:-

- (a) A Deputy President Elect shall be elected annually by the Councillors. Applications for election to the position of Deputy President Elect shall be sent to the Secretary General of the Society before 1 July. The Council shall elect the Deputy President Elect at its next following meeting and the election shall be ratified at the next following Annual General Meeting. The individual elected shall take up office the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting at which his or her election was ratified at which point the existing President's term of office ends, the existing Deputy President advances to be the President and existing Deputy President Elect becomes President Elect. An individual may not serve more than one term as President, President Elect or Deputy President Elect.

- (b) The Secretary General and Treasurer shall be elected for terms of office of five years and shall not be elected for a further term. An election shall be held one year before the term of the current officer is due to end. Applications shall be sent in writing to the Secretary General of the Society before 1 April. A vote shall be taken at the Council Meeting in September and the election shall be ratified at the Annual General Meeting. The successful candidate shall shadow his or her predecessor for one year and take office at the conclusion of the Annual Conference of the Society next following.

- (c) The Chairman of the ESVS Academy Committee, the EVST Secretary and the Editors in Chief of the Society's Journals shall hold office for three years. They shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of the Society's Bye Laws.

Powers of Directors

- (1) The Directors shall manage the business of the charity and may exercise all the powers of the charity unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Acts, the articles or any special resolution
- (2) No alteration of the articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the directors.
- (3) Any meeting of directors at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the directors.

Retirement of Directors

28 All Directors are appointed for a fixed term and must retire from office at the end of that term.

29 If a Director is required to retire at an annual general meeting by a provision of the articles the retirement shall take effect at the end of the Annual Conference at which the annual general meeting is held.

Disqualification and Removal of Directors

30 A Director shall cease to hold office if he

- (1) ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provisions in the Companies Acts or as prohibited by law from being a director;
- (2) is disqualified from acting as a Director by virtue of Section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);
- (3) ceases to be a member of the Charity;
- (4) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his own affairs;
- (5) resigns as a Director by notice to the Charity (but only if at least two Directors will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or
- (6) is absent without the permission of the Directors from all of their meetings held within a period of eighteen consecutive months and the directors resolve that his or her office be vacated;

Remuneration of Directors

31 The Directors must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by article 6.

Proceedings of Directors

32

- (1) The Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the articles and shall meet at least twice in any year and one meeting shall coincide with the Annual Conference of the Charity as defined in the Bye Laws.
- (2) Any Director may call a meeting of the Directors.
- (3) The secretary (if any) must call a meeting of the Directors if requested to do so by a director.
- (4) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.
- (5) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who is chairing the meeting shall have a second or casting vote
- (6) A meeting may be held by suitable electronic means agreed by the Directors in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants

33

- (1) No decision may be made by a meeting of the Directors unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made. "Present" includes being present by suitable electronic means agreed by the Directors in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants
- (2) The quorum shall be two or the number nearest to one third of the total number of Directors, whichever is the greater.
- (3) A Director shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that Director is not entitled to vote.
- (4) Every Director shall have one vote save as permitted under Article 32(5).
- (5) Every issue to be voted upon shall be determined by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting subject to Article 36.

34 If the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Directors or Director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

35

- (1) The President or failing him or her the President Elect of the Charity shall be the Chairman of the meeting.
- (2) If no-one has been appointed to chair meetings of the Directors or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Directors present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.
- (3) The person appointed to chair meetings of the Directors shall have no functions or powers except those conferred by the articles or delegated to him or her by the Directors.

- (1) A resolution in writing or in electronic form agreed by a simple majority of all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors or (as the case may be) a committee of Directors duly convened and held provided that:-

- (a) a copy of the resolution is sent or submitted to all the Directors eligible to vote; and
 - (b) a simple majority of Directors has signified its agreement to the resolution in an authenticated document or documents which are received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.
- (2) The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more Directors has signified their agreement.

Delegation

37

- (1) The Directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee comprising at least three members but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book and one director of the Charity shall be an ex-officio member of such committee.
- (2) The Directors may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that:
 - (a) the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate;
 - (b) no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the Charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the Directors.
- (3) The Directors may revoke or alter a delegation.
- (4) All acts and proceedings of any committees must be fully and promptly reported to the Directors.

Declaration of Directors Interests

- 38 A Director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Charity which has not previously been declared. A Director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Conflicts of Interest

- (1) If a conflict of interest arises for a Director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted Directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:-

- (a) the conflicted Director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
 - (b) the conflicted Director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting; and
 - (c) the unconflicted Directors consider it is in the interest of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.
- (2) In this article a conflict of interest arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a Director or to a connected person.

Validity of Directors' Decisions

- (1) Subject to article 40(2), all acts done by a meeting of Directors, or of a committee of Directors, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a Director:
- (a) who was disqualified from holding office;
 - (b) who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;
 - (c) who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise;

If without:

- (d) the vote of that Director; and
- (e) that Director being counted in the quorum;
