

The job description of an ESVS councillor includes the following responsibilities:

- An ESVS Councillor must be a member of their National Society.
- Actively promote the Society and work towards increasing the ESVS membership in your country and through your National Society.
- Being an ambassador and a source of information about vascular surgery in your country and give a regular short report to your National Society about ESVS.
- Councillors may be requested to share details about vascular care in their countries, and their link to National Societies.
- The Executive Committee will send out activity reports to the Councillors in advance of the Council meetings. Councillors are asked to read reports ahead of the meeting as onsite reports will be very short. The remaining time will be allocated to open discussion. These meetings also allow for Councillors to contribute any topics of interest or share ideas.
- Councillors are asked to participate in ESVS activities, such as grant application reviews and fast-track presentation judging.

Points to note:

- Councillors must cover their own costs to attend the 2 annual Council meetings.*
- Councillors receive complimentary registration to the Charing Cross congress and an invitation to dinner during the ESVS Annual Meeting*.
- Councillors can not be re-elected.
- ESVS councillors from non-European countries can sit on the ESVS Council in an observer capacity. They do not have the right to vote on decisions but they can represent their country and contribute to discussions during the ESVS Council meetings

(*Given the current situation we are not able to confirm which face to face meetings will go ahead in 2021. We will nevertheless ensure 2 Council Meetings take place around the usual times, and a remote participation option will be offered if required.)
